RE: Plaintiff Jordan et al.'s Intention to participate in Settlement Discussions; Lack of receipt of Defendants' modifications to Protective Order

Jordan et al. v. Slidenjoy et al. Case No. 1:19-cv-11868 (PGG)

Dear Judge Gardephe:

Following the hearing held last week in the above case, Plaintiffs hereby indicate their interest in participating in Settlement Discussions before Magistrate Judge Moses.

Plaintiffs also hereby inform the Court that whereas Plaintiffs have provided a draft Protective Order to Defendants' counsel (as of Friday, July 3), Defendants' Counsel has still not provided their modifications to said Protective Order. The failure to enter a Protective Order at this stage is hindering Plaintiffs' ability to pursue sufficient and complete discovery. We believe discovery will be useful during Settlement Discussions.

We request the Court set a final date and/or order for the filing of a joint Protective Order by the parties.

Respectfully Yours,

---
